We seek contributions to a Work-in-Progress (WiP) session of ECRTS'16. The ECRTS'16 WiP session will be devoted to new and on-going research on real-time systems and applications. We are especially interested in new and creative ideas and approaches. Contributors to the WiP session will be required to give a short oral presentation of their work and prepare a poster for the WiP discussion forum that will be held after the presentations. Accepted submissions will be included in a special ECRTS'16 WiP proceedings that will be distributed to all ECRTS'16 conference participants and will be available online.

The primary purpose of this session is to provide researchers with an opportunity to discuss their evolving ideas and gather feedback from the real-time community at large.

We welcome submissions related to all aspects of real-time systems.

Submission Instructions

Submissions to ECRTS WiP should describe original on-going work. The material must be unpublished, not be under submission elsewhere and must not exceed three pages (A4 paper size, two-column format, font size 10). For further information, please visit the session web-page:

By submitting a paper, the authors agree and confirm that: neither this paper nor a version close to it is under submission or will be submitted before notification by ECRTS WiP 2016 and, if accepted, at least one author will register and present the paper at the conference in person.
